

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

HORSERACING TV (TM) TO PRESENT LIVE COVERAGE OF WOODBINE'S BREEDERS' CROWN RACES ON SATURDAY

Toronto, CAN, October 26 -- HorseRacing TV (TM) will give its standardbred racing fans a special pre-Halloween treat when it presents live coverage of harness racing's Breeders' Crown races from Woodbine Racetrack near Toronto on Saturday, October 28.

A total of eight championship races -- encompassing 79 horses -- will be contested, involving two- and three-year-old standouts involving both gaits (trotters/pacers) and genders. Combined purses for the stakes-laden card total more than $4.6 million.

The tremendous 12-race Woodbine card begins at 7:20 p.m. ET/4:20 p.m. PT, with the first Breeders' Crown race slated for 7:45 p.m. ET/4:45 p.m. PT.

HRTV's harness team of Peter Lurie and Kevin Decker will anchor the network's detailed coverage, offering in-depth analysis and valuable insight on one of harness racing's biggest nights.

The Breeders' Crown often plays a major role in deciding the sport's Horse of the Year, as well as crowning divisional champions.

Some of the standardbred stars slated to compete include: Passionate Glide (3-year-old trotting filly), Pampered Princess (2YO trotting filly), Glidemaster and Majestic Son (3YO trotting colts), and Dave Panlone and Total Truth (3YO pacing colts).
